Breakfast Casseroles - Enjoy a comforting breakfast with your choice of Cream Cheese Danish (cream cheese layered between flaky pastry), Breakfast Cheese Casserole (eggs, cheese, and cream over thick cut bread), Breakfast Sausage Casserole (sausage, eggs, and cheese on a layer of richly buttered bread), or French Toast Casserole (thick cut bread, brown sugar, eggs, milk, butter, and cinnamon - what could be bad about this???). Just remove them from the fridge, bake for a little while, and breakfast is served.

Banana Nut Mini Muffins - It's banana bread in a mini muffin size. Perfect for teas, showers, or just for nibbling at coffee break. Pecans or walnuts - your choice.

Savory Sausage Balls - A new take on an old favorite. You still get the flour, sausage, and sharp cheese, but special herbs and spices are added to give these sausage balls a fresh, different taste. You'll love them!!

Apple Nut Bread - What can we say about something so delicious - apples, pecans, bread, cinnamon - it is everything you want. Order some today!!!

Cranberry Walnut Bread - Same as above but with cranberries and walnuts, if you like them better than apples and pecans. You pick!!

Heath Bar Brunch Cake - A 9X13 pan of brown sugar/Heath Bar goodness. Has a streusel topping that is yummy.

Philip's Gourmet Grits - Please don't feed this to anyone with heart trouble - grits prepared in heavy cream, finished off with cream cheese, cheddar cheese, sour cream, butter, and just a touch of garlic, ready for you to bake in the oven. All I can say is "wow".

Cheese Straws - Over a pound and a third of traditional Southern treats, you may order them in mild, medium, or Charles Reeves "make you sweat" hot!!

Cheese Savories - A Miss Red's creation of a cheese wafer full of savory herbs and spices. You won't be able to go back to cheese and crackers after this!!! As with the cheese straws, you get over a pound and a third in an order - they still won't last very long, though.

Pecan Cheddar Crisps - Cheese wafers filled with crunchy pecan pieces, baked till crispy and golden. A Southern taste treat.

Toasted Pecans - Enjoy large (mammoth) or regular pecans toasted in your way - salt, chili, garlic, or chili-lime.

Chicken Salad - Miss Red's original recipe - she would be so pleased you love it. No fillers here - just meat, mayonnaise, pickles and spices. Same delicious mixture in our sealed sandwiches. You just can't find better than this. I hope my Granny is proud.

Ham & Cheese Tarts - Yummy little bites of ham and cream cheese, with the perfect amount of herbs and spices, baked up in a flaky crust. You'll fall for these!!

Italian Meatballs - These flavorful one half-ounce meatballs may become a new favorite. You may request marinara sauce, tomato-cream sauce, a ketchup/bourbon sauce, or a sweet/spicy sauce to accompany your meatballs.

Taco Soup - Rich tomato based soup with black beans, whole kernel corn, pinto beans, browned meat, onions, and seasonings. Just add corn chips, grated Cheddar, and sour cream and you have a taco in a bowl!!

Potato Soup - Chunks of firm potatoes swimming in cream accented with celery, carrots, and all the other spices that make this a real comfort food.

Southwest Corn Chowder - Rich, tangy, creamy soup with chunks of potato and corn - just what you need to satisfy that soup hunger!!

Shrimp & Corn Chowder - Enough shrimp and corn to make each mouthwatering spoonful satisfy your cravings.

Chicken Tortilla Soup - A little bit of the Southwest here in our area. The chicken and tortillas blend to make a special taste treat for those looking for a Mexican fiesta in their mouth. We can turn up the heat, at your request - just let us know your heat tolerance.

Broccoli Cheese Soup - I am sure that this is good for you on some level, but Craig refuses to eat it, no matter what. Broccoli, cheese, cream - maybe for after your heart check-up.

Vegetable Beef Barley Soup - A rich, chunky vegetable filled soup with hunks of beef. The savory broth infuses this soup with just the right flavor to bring you back for more.

Tomato Basil Bisque - This soup will make you think you have your own personal chef (I guess you do - ME!!). Really, it is one of the best soups in the line-up, and is even better if you crumble toasted garlic bread in the bowl before you add the soup. I think I will head to the kitchen for a bowl right now!!!

Lobster Bisque - You will think you are in the fanciest of restaurants when you serve this creamy, seafood laden soup. One of the best we have ever tasted.

Craig's Favorite Meatloaf - No, I don't hide boiled eggs in this like his mom did, but he still says this is his favorite. A horseradish infused meatloaf with onions and a tomato sauce/brown sugar topping. I even like this one!!

Pups in Pastry - You will say "Wow" when you eat these. Wanted to call them Moo in Pastry, but I think the Chic-Fil-A cows would be upset. The best little franks rolled in the buttery-est pastry - you'll be looking for more.

Tarragon Chicken - Really, just as it sounds. Rotini pasta, chicken breast, and sweet onions in a tarragon seasoned cream and wine sauce. Jaime's favorite - we think it will be yours, too.

Chicken Tetrazzini - An Italian tradition made with chopped chicken breasts in a creamy mushroom/wine sauce, mixed with al dente spaghetti. This casserole is delicious and goes a long way.

Chicken Spaghetti - The classic with chicken, spaghetti, light cream sauce, and sauteed onions. No other fillers - you must request bell peppers and pimentos, if you would like them in your casserole.

Poppy Seed Chicken - Another classic, made with chicken breast, cream sauce, poppy seeds, and covered with a layer of buttery crumbs. The base is basmati rice, so you have a complete meal in a pan.

Chicken Pasta Salad Casserole - You start with the makings for our pasta salad, add flavorful chicken pieces, cheese, some sour cream, pour into a casserole and top with more cheese. Sounds unusual, but was a real hit with lots of testers - we think you will enjoy it, too.

Texas Busy Day Casserole - When I was growing up, we whipped up this dish any time we were busy, hence the name. Can't tell you everything, but if you like corn, noodles, and cheese, you will like this hearty dish. If you have a preference, we can use ground beef or ground turkey - you let us know.

Beef Stroganoff over Broad Noodles - The traditional preparation with quality beef, sour cream, mushrooms, and wine sauce, all over buttery broad noodles will make your supper memorable.

Chicken Spinach Lasagna - Lasagna noodles layered with a mixture of chicken breasts, spinach, cheese, sour cream, and spices, topped with chopped pecans, of all things. Sounds unusual, but one of my best selling casseroles.

Salmon Oreganato - Six filets of Atlantic salmon, each six to seven ounces, with the most delightful oreganato topping, baked to perfection, nestled in spinach with lemon sauce. Folks will think they are in a fancy Atlanta restaurant when you serve this to your family or guests.

Quiche - Take your choice of the list or, if you have a favorite that is not listed, just let us know - I bet we can fix you up. Real men DO eat our quiche, especially if they know what is good for them!!

Baked Onion Rice - Wonderful with steak, chicken, or just by itself, this rice is baked in rich onion/beef broth.

Pineapple Casserole - Baked yummy pineapple goodness, mixed with cheese and butter, topped with flaky, buttery crumbs - you know you love it.

Broccoli Rice Casserole - You have probably had this all your life - broccoli, basmati rice, sour cream, cheese, and yummy. Let us bring back fond memories of meals at home with this dish.

Spinach Rice Casserole - Spinach like you have never had it before. Spinach and rice in a creamy Italian sauce layered with Monterrey Jack cheese. This is the only way I can get Craig to eat spinach. Will become a favorite of yours, too.

Oven Roasted Rosemary Red Potatoes - Red skinned potatoes, cubed and rubbed in olive oil, baked with just a touch of rosemary - a very up-scaled dish that will enhance your entire menu.

Sour Cream Potatoes - Like potatoes aren't good enough on their own, here we add sour cream and mayonnaise along with thin slices of red onion, all layered and delicious. These may be the best potatoes ever!! This dish is served cold - almost like a potato salad but with sliced potatoes, not chunks.

Aunt Laverne's Corn Casserole - Craig's favorite way to eat corn other than fried, cream corn. Yellow rice mixed with cheese and corn, baked till golden and bubbly.

Sweet Potato Soufflé - Sweet potatoes, cream, pecans, brown sugar - just the good old Southern sweet potato dish. Let us whip it up for you to enjoy.

Mom's Great Green Beans - French cut green beans layered with onions and bacon bits, marinated and baked in an oil and vinegar dressing. We bake it first, then you just warm it before serving. Don't know anyone who doesn't like this one.

Carrot Soufflé - You will swear it is actually a dessert, but, no - it is a vegetable serving. Prepared almost like a pound cake, this light and airy concoction is filled with grated carrots and baked in a seasoned breadcrumb lined pan. Great served with a lemon sauce. Leftovers warm beautifully, if there are any!!

Decadent Mac & Cheese - I really should get a release from your cardiologist to sell you this dish. You won't believe the rich, creamy cheese sauce, using four different kinds of cheese, to make this the best macaroni and cheese you ever ate. I can't make this for us too often - it's too easy to eat the whole recipe myself.

Broccoli Salad - Broccoli, raisins, sunflower seeds, red onions, and bacon in a tangy sweet and sour creamy dressing. Jaime says, "Yum"!!!

Pasta Salad - Just an old-fashioned salad made with rotini pasta, corn, vegetable blend, special dressing and spices. Pretty good, just out of the bowl.

Potato Salad - Just like Granny made for us - nuff said!! I can leave out the onions but you will need to let me know your preference when you order.

Summertime Deviled Eggs - Yummy goodness, just like you remember as a kid. These won't last long.

Boiled & Peeled Shrimp - We start with 21-25 shrimp, boil them up just the way my daddy did, then we take all the work out of serving them by peeling them for you. We will send some of our hearty cocktail (heavy on the horseradish) sauce - all you have to do is eat and enjoy.

Lemerle's Famous Shrimp Salad - My momma created this delightful take on shrimp salad. No fillers - just shrimp in a secret blend of creamy goodness, with a little onion added for good measure.

Lu's Famous Frozen Fruit Salad - We have recreated a most delectable treat from a local sandwich shop of the 1980's - Frozen Fruit Salad. Lots of fruit, especially cherries, and pecans in a creamy mixture, frozen in individual swirly molds. Let them sit out of the freezer for 10 to 15 minutes till you can get a fork through them to serve; then, eat up. You will thank me for reintroducing this dish. You probably want to keep several on hand, just for those mid-afternoon snack attacks. After all, I am sure this would be considered a fruit serving (and several fat servings, too)!! We are not sure how these will travel for our customers in the Atlanta area, but we will work with you to get them to you frozen; you will have to take it from there.

Salmon Crustini - A delightful starter to share with family or guests. Crunchy little rounds of toasted bread topped with a scrumptious mixture of cream cheese, salmon, and spices. The perfect little appetizers.

Salmon Infused Deviled Eggs - Not the same old deviled eggs - this elegant presentation of an old stand-by will have you coming back for more. Smoked salmon, dill, and mayonnaise enhance the filling for twenty-four halves for your delight. Your guests will think the Food Network catered your party!!!

Homemade Pimento Cheese - Sharp cheese, mayonnaise, pimentos, and spices - don't you hear childhood calling? Great on sandwiches, crackers, celery, or a spoon - keep it on hand for midnight snacking. You can't go wrong with this stuff.

Cheese Balls - Nothing fancy - just cheese, cream cheese, spices, and your choice of spinach for a savory snack or pineapple for a sweet presentation. We can certainly make other selections, if you wish - just let us know your pleasure.

Sack Lunch - We are now offering sack lunches. You will receive your choice of a couple of small sandwiches - ham and cheese and turkey and cheese - or one larger sandwich in either ham or turkey either with cheese, with condiments, along with a piece of fresh fruit, chips, a serving of our homemade pimento cheese and crackers, and a couple of Miss Red's famous cookies, all in a cute little handled bag lined with tissue paper. Let us know when we can help you out with these little treasure packages. You may add a bottle of water for a slight charge.
